Degree Programs and Requirements

The University of Scouting degree programs are designed to provide an incentive for continued training and as a method to recognize adults who participate in furthering their Scouting knowledge.

Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, and Venturing each offer four degrees in their program area. These degrees are earned as follows.

- 1st year – Bachelor's Degree – take 6 University of Scouting courses.
- 2nd year – Master's Degree – earn Bachelors Degree and take 6 more University of Scouting courses.
- 3rd year – Doctoral Candidate – earn Masters Degree and take 6 more University of Scouting courses.
- 4th year – Doctorate – earn Doctoral Candidate, take 6 more University of Scouting courses, and be Wood Badge Trained (show beads).

Commissioners have different requirements. The definitions for the various degrees have now been clarified by the National Council in conjunction with the new Doctorate of Commissioner of Science award. For the specific details, please see the Commissioners' Corner section of the Circle Ten web site www.circle10.org and click on the Doctorate of Commissioner of Science Award link.

Course Descriptions

Cub Scout Courses

It is highly recommended that all Cub Scout leaders take CS-48 Guide to Safe Scouting. By the time most Cub leaders learn these rules, they have graduated to Boy Scouts, and their knowledge goes with them. Don't wait until you are "experienced" to take this class – take it now, and share the information! Make sure your pack is well-informed on BSA's safety policies before your next event!

CS-10 Academic and Sports Program. Enhance your Cub program with fun physical and mental challenges. Boys like displaying these awards on their belts and red vests.

CS-11 Working with Boys with Autism Spectrum Disorders. Most Scouters will encounter boys with autism spectrum disorders in their units, at camp, and at district/council events. Learn to recognize these boy's strengths and difficulties, adapt your methods to work with them, and adjust your programs to enrich the Scouting experience for all your Scouts.

CS-12 Blue & Gold Ceremonies. How to have the best Cub Scout birthday ever with themes, decorations, ceremonies and more! This class covers planning, organizing, and presentation.

CS-13 Utilizing Boy Leadership. When you delegate leadership you build responsibility. There will be tips for utilizing den chiefs and denners in your meetings that will make your job easier.

CS-14 Leader Burn Out. Delegating, stress management, conflict management, and how not to suffer from the dreaded "But nobody else will do it" syndrome.

CS-15 Campfire Program. Planning the campfire itinerary; incorporating the 4 S's for a successful campfire – Songs, Stunts, Stories, and Showmanship; and campfire safety.

CS-16 Planning Great Campouts. Feel overwhelmed about planning a campout for a whole pack? We will make it easy, and break it down into steps for you to follow. Your campout may just be your den's or pack's favorite part of Cub Scouting!

CS-17 Ceremonies. Great ceremonies that are motivational and dramatic. Keeping your ceremonies jazzed adds to the excitement and fun for everyone!

CS-18 Cub Scout Chemistry. Don't be afraid of flunking this chem class! This is fun science at its best and easiest.

CS-19 Community Service. Get your pack more involved in giving service to your community, senior citizens, hospitals, conservation and more.

CS-20 Computerize Your Pack. Bring your pack up to Circle Ten's standards of on-line advancement.

CS-21 Outdoor Cooking. Who says Cubs can't cook outdoors? You don't have to eat just hot dogs! This is a hands-on outdoor class. See it, do it, eat it, and take the ideas back to your den.

CS-22 Crafts You Can Eat. Make a craft, have fun, and eat it? You know boys will love what you learn in this class!

CS-23 Crafts for Tigers, Wolves, and Bears. Fun, and easy crafts that are specially tailored to these younger Cub Scouts.

CS-24 Crafts for Webelos. Intriguing crafts that help Webelos earn their activity badges.

CS-25 Aquatics. Do you want to take your pack canoeing or swimming? Do you have questions about water safety? Do you need someone to teach the swimming belt loop and pin? Get all the answers you want and more about Cub Scouts and Aquatics, including resources.

CS-26 Cubworld. Your council has a free camp for your pack. Your only payment is being Cub World-certified at this class!

CS-27 Taming Your Den/Den Discipline. Are your Scouts acting like a bunch of wild animals? Learn how to tame their wild side. Class taught by a non-Scouting guest speaker who has many years of experience using and teaching the "Love and Logic" philosophy.

CS-28 Derbies and Races. Plan 'em, build 'em, run 'em, score 'em and make 'em a super addition to your program.

CS-29 Flag Etiquette, Ceremonies & Retirement. Flag procedures including proper saluting, raising, lowering, and much more in this "Respect for the Flag" oriented session.

CS-30 Fundraising. This class will teach you how to get that money you need to run your great Scouting program. What you are going to do with all that dough is up to you!

CS-31 Games. Indoor, outdoor, fast, slow, physical and mental. Let the games begin!

CS-32 Geocaching to Promote Scouting for Cub Scouts. Even the youngest Scouts love using GPS technology and the new sport of geocaching, which is a treasure hunt using a GPS unit to find a prize. Come learn how to incorporate geocaching activities into your den, pack, or district to promote recruitment, advancement, retention, and public relations. This session is on Cub Scout age youth activities. (2 hours, inside and outside)

CS-33 Duty to God. Plan a worship service, learn about religious emblems, and practice "A Scout is Reverent."

CS-34 Knots. Don't know a sheepshank from a granny knot? Come and see how easy it is to learn (and teach) knots that Cubs can use.

CS-35 Leatherworking. Learn the basics of stamping and tooling with simple projects just for Cub Scouts.

CS-36 Leave No Trace. This course will provide a brief history and overview of the 7 principles of LNT. With over 50 million overnight visits per year by Scouts into the wild lands, this course is a must for all Scout leaders. Information will also be provided on how you can become a certified LNT Trainer or LNT Master Educator.

CS-37 Magic. A world of illusions and surprises. Learn the basics in a fun and exciting way.

CS-38 Making the Most Out of Your Meeting Time. Incorporate special awards, belt loops and more into meetings you are doing anyway. How to work with different rank boys and help each of them earn requirements at the same time.

CS-39 Outings and Hikes. Where to go, what to do, and how to do it. Boys like to get outside. Take them!

CS-40 Role of the Pack Trainer. Learn the duties and responsibilities required of the person in this position and how he or she can help the pack grow!

CS-41 Planning FUN & Effective Pack Meetings - Part I. Every pack has a different personality and style. In this half of Planning Fun and Effective Pack meetings, we will talk about the basics of developing your Pack's personality. Pack meeting planning will be covered, along with some of the variants you may want to include in your meetings. We will also be covering ideas on how to get other adults and the Cubs involved in planning and executing the meeting.

CS-41 Planning FUN & Effective Pack Meetings - Part II. Now that you know how to plan a great pack meeting, what are some of the cool things that you can do to take your pack meeting to the next level? In this section, we will discuss specifics that can turn a good pack meeting into a great pack meeting. We will also discuss the secrets of meeting planning that will have everyone asking "where did that cool idea come from?".

CS-42 Getting Parents Involved. How to recruit, train and retain adults in your pack.

CS-43 Pizzazz. Cheers, skits, time fillers, jokes, and sparklers. Keep your meetings alive and your boys in stitches.

CS-44 Polymer Clay. It's the hottest arts and crafts medium to hit the market in years. Colorful, immediate, and extremely versatile, polymer clay just may well be the most exciting material you'll ever lay your hands on! Join us, and see for yourself! (2-hour course)

CS-45 Public Relations. How to get pictures and articles of your Cub Scouts in local papers.

CS-46 Adult Recognition & Thank Yous! Creative and easy ways to let those hard-working adults know they are appreciated!

CS-47 Recruiting and Join Scouting Night. Successful packs make recruiting new Cubs a year-round process. Learn how to recruit all year long and to make the most out of your recruiting events.

CS-48 Guide to Safe Scouting. Never hear "Coul'da, Would'a, Should'a" again. Now you will know BSA's rules about camping, cooking, swimming, tour permits, and more.

CS-49 "Special" Awards. There are many awards available to Cub Scouts that are beyond the handbook – Texas badge, recruiter strip, helmet safety badge, Greater Dallas area historical patch, interpreter strips, and much, much more!

CS-50 Great Songs. Do you believe that boys love to sing? They just need the right atmosphere, fun songs, and a great leader. You can provide this (even if you can't carry a tune in a bucket!).

CS-51 Supporting Scouts with AD/HD: Tips for Scout Leaders. How to work with Scouts with physical, mental or emotional challenges so that they feel successful in the Scouting program (without sacrificing the integrity of the entire den).

CS-52 Webelos Pacing/Transition to Boy Scouts. Design a balanced, goal oriented schedule to earn the Webelos badge, Arrow of Light award, and crossover to Boy Scouts.

CS-53 Whittlin' Chip. Be Whittlin' Chip-trained so you can teach Cub Scouts and Webelos Scouts how to use and care for their pocket knives. You will need to bring your own pocket knife to this course.

CS-54 Introduction to Wood Badge. Wood Badge is Scouting's premier training course to learn, in a practical way, the skills and methods of leadership that will benefit you not only in Scouting but in other aspects of your life. Come and find out what, when, where, and why you should be Wood Badge-trained.

CS-55 Dutch Oven Cooking. Don't let that dutch oven rust away in the garage. Learn how to season your oven and spice up your menu on your next Cub Scout campout.

CS-56 Get Smart - Keeping Chaos from controlling the Den. Do you need some helpful strategies for dealing with a group of boys? This will be a fast moving, funny and, most of all, useful session on ways to solve behavioral problems in den meetings.
